

Rector's instruction No. 4/2024 (19 March) on declaring teaching breaks at Óbuda University

Referring to the authorization expressed in Article 39. paragraph (8) of the Student requirements and statutes of Óbuda University, I order the following:

1. In accordance with the spring semester academic calendar of the academic year 2023/24 approved by the Senate, I hereby declare a break from teaching for all full-time and part-time students of Óbuda University on 28 March 2024 (Thursday), and 2 April 2024 (Tuesday).
2. Óbuda University organizes the 59th Conference of Students' Research Societies on 24 April 2024 (the event, hereinafter). To guarantee the smooth course of the event, as well as to render possible the unperturbed participation in the event for both lecturing students, and professors concerned, and all those who wish to attend alike, I announce a teaching break from 12:35 on 24 April 2024 (Wednesday) on all faculties for students in both full-time and part-time training programmes.
3. In accordance with the spring semester academic calendar of the academic year 2023/24 approved by the Senate, I hereby declare a break from teaching for all full-time and part-time students of all faculties of the University on 30 April 2024 (Tuesday), and 2 May 2024 (Thursday). In addition, I declare a break from teaching for all full-time students of all faculties of the University on 3 May 2024 (Friday), while the courses of part-time programmes may still be delivered.

These instructions shall come into force on the date of promulgation and shall cease to have effect on 4 May 2024.
